

Regulations

of the

Margaret Eaton School

Residence for Students

THE residence of The Margaret Eaton School of Literature and Expression, established in September, 1919, for the reception of a limited number of students, has filled an urgent need. It is situated at 39 Dundonald Street, and assures to students comfortable quarters and wholesome food during their years of study. The directors have been fortunate in securing the services of Miss Lexa Denne, B.A., a graduate in Household Science of the University of Toronto, as mistress of the household.

As the accommodation is limited, it is desirable that applications should be made as early as possible. Reservations will be made only for the complete season of three terms, which conform to the periods outlined in the School calendar. Preference will be given to those who are registered for full courses.

Students who make application for accommodation after the beginning of the season will be charged pro rata from the time of their proposed entrance to the residence.

Rates for room and board for the three terms of twelve weeks each, of the academic year, are: Per term, $144.00; per year, $432.00, payable by the term in advance as follows: The first term, on or before September 15th; the second term, on or before December 8th; the third term, on or before March 17th. Failure in the observance of this rule may result in forfeiture of the room in question. A deposit of $25.00, which is required at the time of engaging a room, will be applied on the last term. No application will be registered unless accompanied by the deposit.

Students not being accepted for any period short of the school year, or the unexpired portion thereof, no refunds in fees will be made for withdrawal before the end of the season.

Christmas and Easter vacations are not included in the twelve weeks' term. Students remaining in residence then will be charged for board pro rata.

Students are required to bring towels, napkin ring and teaspoons for use in bedroom. All bedding is provided.

The School will not hold itself responsible for money or valuables unless they are deposited at the office, where a receipt for same will be given.

All chafing dishes, spirit lamps, electrical appliances, and the use for any purpose of any burning or inflammable fluid, are prohibited.

All cases of illness must be reported at once. The house physician will be called in first, but the student may consult her own doctor afterwards, if so desired. Physician's fees to be paid by the student.

Loyalty to the School and Faculty is expected from every student.

The Margaret Eaton School Digital Collection is a not-for-profit resource created in 2014-2015 to assist scholars, researchers, educators, and students to discover the Margaret Eaton School archives housed in the Peter Turkstra Library at Redeemer University College. Copyright of the digital images is the property of Redeemer University College, Ancaster, Canada and the images may not be copied or emailed to multiple sites without the copyright holder's express written permission. However, users may print, download, or email digital images for individual non-commercial use. To learn more about this project or to search the digital collection, go to <http://libguides.redeemer.ca/mes>.